TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. A. P. Carey left this morning for Burlington to visit for the day.

At the regular meeting of the Barre Woman's club, held in Howland hall Tuesday, Nov. 4, the club voted to amend the constitution, making the life membership $20, instead of $10, as has been heretofore. After the business meeting, Mrs. Ashton of Rutland spoke very interestingly on "Americanization and the Spirit of the General Federation." A cordial welcome was given Mrs. Ashton, who has many acquaintances among the members of the club here. Refreshments and a social hour followed the program.

Many football enthusiasts have been wondering whether or not the game between Norwich university and the University of Vermont will be played Saturday on the Norwich grounds as scheduled. Coach Boerle of Norwich assured The Times this morning that the game would be played regardless of the snow. Students, he said, have volunteered their services to clear the field. Every means to put the field in condition will be resorted to and to this end considerable sawdust has been secured to distribute in the soggy spots. Should the regular field, which is located in a valley, prove to be unfit for use, the game will be staged on the parade grounds on the school hill. This is the Harvard-Yale game of Vermont and seems that many in Montpelier and Barre are planning to attend the contest.

This letter received at Goddard seminary from a Goddard student at U. V. M. yesterday will be of no little interest to those acquainted with the persons mentioned in the letter: "G. S. is not at all the background up here. Mowles spoke at the Strong last night for the Red Cross drive and is going to be at the Majestic this week. 'Pat' Soule is the strongest man in the university, and, of course, all the boys shine in athletics. Flanders is class treasurer and Annie Sargent is secretary and class representative to the faculty council. So much for our little old red school. 'Doc' Mowles will be remembered as speaking in Barre last year in the Liberty loan drives after his return from overseas, where he saw much hard service in the ambulance corps, driving a motor ambulance. At one time his machine was blown up when he was in action upon the field, and he now walks with a cane and suffers a little from effects of being gassed.

Charles Lattel is now having an 18-day vacation from his duties as mail carrier and plans to spend part of the time with relatives in Massachusetts.

Regular meeting of Barre post, No. 10, American Legion, Thursday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p. m. in K. of P. hall. Everybody out to help state convention.

Among the musical entertainments to be staged at Goddard seminary this winter will be the famous glee and band club of Tufts college, which has visited this place several times and presented one of the finest musical entertainments. The club has been secured to be present at the opening of the second semester of the school year, that being on the fifth day of January.

At a meeting of the Knights of Columbus last evening it was decided that a pool, billiard and card team would be chosen by competitive games between the members. This team will then be ready to meet other club teams in a series of games during the winter months. Though there are no games scheduled, it is expected that a few games will be played before the Christmas holidays with other club teams.

Eugene Lorange, John O'Keefe and Leonard Lander were chosen a committee for the tournament team.

The driver of the D. M. Miles coal truck received quite a surprise yesterday afternoon when gallons of water were poured over the truck while it was driving. The source of this great volume was a street hydrant which he broke off by backing the large truck against it. Asst. Supt. George H. Cook was called to shut off the branch supply. To-day a new hydrant replaced the damaged one. Another hydrant installation was completed this morning near the junction of Beckley and North Main streets. At the order of the city council the work of connecting with the main was started two days ago and finished yesterday afternoon.

A test was made this morning. Private Priester, a former member of the Tilden Shoe company, arrived in Barre this morning and is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edward Anderson of Washington street. Private Priester enlisted in the U. S. service one month after the United States entered the war and has been in the army for the past 29 months, seeing considerable active service but coming out of the war without a wound. He received his discharge at Camp Mead Oct. 28. Most of the 1st division, which he was with, were discharged around Sept. 26, but after the parade in New York and Washington in which Private Priester took part, he was sent to a hospital, where he underwent an operation, from which he has now fully recovered. Private Priester was in these battles: Cantigny, Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel and Argonne.

He has been nine months in the trenches. After a few days' visit with his sister and brother, Charles Priester, he will return to Philadelphia, where he made his home just before the war.

Speculation on the Spaulding-St. Albans high game to be played in St. Albans Saturday favors the former team, despite the fact that St. Albans defeated the Burlington high school team last week, while the Barre team could do no better than tie in the game with Burlington. This inclination toward Spaulding comes through the advantageous changes which have come about with the Spaulding aggregation since the opening of the season. It was at the beginning of the season that the home team played Burlington, and since the team defeated the St. Albans team 20-0 here on the Lincoln campus, Coach Robert Ross feels that the St. Albans game will prove a hard one and consequently is making preparations for such. The players turned out Monday and Tuesday for the daily practice, but with the snow on the ground yesterday were compelled to resort to the school gymnasium for signal practice only. The line is now the strongest it has been this season, while the backfield has abundant material. There are now backfield players, and good ones too, who can change with the regulars without weakening the team in any way. With this valuable asset, Spaulding's team makes a most formidable high school aggregation, which many of the high schools throughout the state already realize. Rutland high, which claims, thus far, the championship of the western and southern part of the state, has offered a $125 guarantee for a game to be played on the campus on Thanksgiving day. Arrangements have not been completed, but since Montpelier high has agreed to play the return game on Nov. 15 instead of Thanksgiving day, as scheduled, there is a likelihood that Coach Ross and Priester will accept the Barre-Burlington challenge. Spaulding has not met defeat this season and with the return of Llewellyn Densmore on end, after an absence of two or three weeks, caused by injury, it appears that the school is not due to be defeated next Saturday.

LOVEMAKING PROHIBITED.

Girls of Ireland Must Not Keep Company with British Soldiers.

Dublin, Nov. 6.—Lovemaking by the girls of Ireland with members of the government forces has been prohibited by the Irish republican army. Any girls keeping company with a government soldier or policeman will be penalized by having her hair cut off. One girl has already suffered the full penalty, losing her locks for walking out with a soldier.

THE GERMAN GUARANTEE

May Be Called for on Nov. 10 by the Allies.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The supreme council to-day discussed plans for receiving a German delegation on Nov. 10 to sign the protocol guaranteeing the carrying out by Germany of portions of the armistice conditions, which so far have not been met. It is assumed that Baron Von Lesner, head of the mission at Versailles, will sign the protocol for Germany.

NO NOV. 11 HOLIDAY.

Gov. Clement Says He Has No Authority to Create Such a Holiday.

Governor Clement has announced that he has decided not to issue a proclamation with reference to celebrating the victory of the allied armies, Nov. 11. The governor has no authority to create a legal holiday, except Thanksgiving day. To appoint Nov. 11 as a day of thanksgiving would, at this time, interfere with the plans of many families who expect from previous custom that Nov. 27 will be designated as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. Meetings and school vacations are already scheduled for the days immediately following Nov. 27.

Nov. 11 will not be a legal holiday for the schools of the state. To issue a proclamation of any nature would promote confusion among teachers and students, relative to school attendance on that day, he says.

The governor also stated that he will recommend to the next legislature that Nov. 11 be made a holiday, and that the legislature give serious consideration to fixing Nov. 11, the anniversary of the allied victory, as Thanksgiving day. There may be an advantage, he says, in having a longer time intervening between Thanksgiving and Christmas.
